Just what is Astrology? In its most common context when it is referenced to for example- The British Intellectuals who strongly believe there is "something in it", will refer you to the source of information by naming the country's author such as German, French, or American publications and in many cases, will quote what some mysterious Hindu once said to him in India.

One of the veterans (and it does have veterans because of the infighting that goes on between other Astrologers), classified his art of Astrology as a "system of symbolical life interpretation" or "the algebra of life". His Name? DANE RUDHYAR!

Professor MORRIS CARSTAIRS, a social psychologist in Edinburgh University, I believe gave the best and final conclusion for those individuals who seek Astrologist for their answer to every day life.

"With the initial premise of this self-centered view of the word, the Hindus' unshakeable belief in Astrology became more comprehensible."

In many countries throughout the world, Astrology is, THE QUEEN OF THE SCIENCES".

To all individuals or organizations or countries, do and many times agree that they hold one common belief together in the ART or SCIENCE or BELIEF of Astrology. Research, evidence, or conclusions come to the relationship between the Stars or Planets and Human Beings.

"It may not be a relationship of cause and effect (i.e., the stars may not directly influence human beings). But a relationship there must be...." (ASTROLOGY, MacNeice, Doubleday, pg.12)

No matter what kind of Astrology one follows, if it be calculations, Dances or Songs or Homelics, it starts with the Stars or Planets.

To many, Astrology, is a matter of predictions and horoscopes. The ordinary man wants only to hear about himself which has made this part
