

I speak of a phrase that is ideologically the medium between reality and fantasy which contributes to neither, therefore it is widely accepted.

However! It does identify a lifestyle which is the epitome of both reality and fantasy, when, both have found there is no mountain top to be reached, or that place of NO RETURN.

The phrase, is an excerpt from religious writings and these religious writings were changed so that the excerpt would become a religion or an attribute to a religion.

THERE IS HOPE? or WE STILL HAVE HOPE!

I speak of this because it is one of your spiritual steps

It is called, THE GAU. Civilized nations have changed aboriginal languages where the word or expression for THE GAU now means THE GHOST.

GHOST is a civilized word and is German meaning: SPIRIT.
