

put in front of you in part, all these Indians have to do is try because there is still enough traditional teachings left that tell what each sign and curve means.

The following page was done in a minor way, to only show that the mystery is not that unknown.

What the so-called traditionalist should be thinking about, if their HELL'BENT on doing everything in an Indian way, start by teaching the young to write in Indian.

Don't use the excuse that this is lost, because it isn't. Maybe many of the expressions are no longer used, but they are not lost.

N O W ! There are two ways for Indians to write their languages and come from two different Ancient Indian Empires of the past.

There need not be a confusion to what writing system each tribe should use or belong too, because a scientific report; THE VERO AND MELBOURNE MAN, I. Rouse, Transactions of the New York Academy of Sciences, Ser. II, Vol. 12 (1950) every Antiquist, Anthropologist, and Linguist knows what writing system should be used by what tribe.

Antiquist and Linguist have the two systems down so well that scientist from other countries can translate them to their own languages without any trouble. In fact, in the new translations of the DEAD SEA SCROLLS, WARS OF THE LORD, FIRST and SECOND BOOKS OF GENESIS have been expended using the American Indian methods. The Valley of the Kings will next be considered for retranslation. All the prophecys written down by other Ancients around the world are being revaluated to their meaning because of these writing systems.

An Ancient Antiquity discovery in the 1930's, which was never used till the problems of the world today forced scientist to look again, because of the Indian end-time prophecys and along with history recorded that the Indian of the America's trained and taught others, sciences and mathematics to start other civilizations around the world.

there is still enough traditional teachings left that tell what each sign and curve means. '

The following page was done in a minor way, to only show that the mystery is not that unknown.

What the so-called traditionalist should be thinking about, if their HELL'BENT on doing everything in an 'Indian way, start by teaching the young to write in Indian.

Don't use the excuse that this is lost, because it isn't. Maybe many of the expressions are no longer used, but they are not lost.

N O W I There are two ways for Indians to write their languages and come from two different Ancient Indian Empires of the past.

There need not be a confusion to what writing system each tribe should use or belong; too, because a scientific report; THE VERO AND MELBOURNE MAN, I. Rouse, Transactions of the New York Academy of Sciences, Ser. II, Vol. 12 (1950) every Antiquist, Anthropologist, and Linguist knows what writing system should be used by what tribe.

Antiquist and Linguist have the two systems down so well that scientist from other countries can translate them to their own languages without any trouble. In fact, in the new translations of the DEAD SEA SCROLLS, WARS OF THE LORD, FIRST and SECOND BOOKS OF GENESIS have been eicpended using; the American Indian methods. The Valley of the Kings will next be considered for retranslation. All the prophecys written down by other Ancients around the world are being revaluated to their meaning because of these writing systems.

An Ancient Antiquity discovery in the 1930's, which was never used till of the world today forced scientist to look again, because of the Indian end-time prophecys and along with history recorded that the Indian of the Amer'ica's trained and taught othe1^s, sciences and mathematics to start other civilizations around the world.