

The concept and expression for the english word FAITH translating it to old ancient expressions, means to take TODAY only in time and that event that can be altered, in which you can control tomorrow.

Charity which comes from the Greek (Caritas, carus) is far below Aphiloa and Agappa, and even though it has been stretched in slang, it still does not go beyond tolerance and leniency spiritually.

Now that you have been shown this, keep in mind, whatever you make the GAU out of, it cannot be bolted, glued, or nailed together. It must held together by an old Ancient Law. The civilized nations of the past thought this to be a mystery spiritually, but it is not. It is part of a child ritual that Ancient Chiefs, Prophets, and Medicine People were tortured, beaten, and killed for and to the end they would not reveal how it was done because of one spiritual law: THE RITUAL BELONGS TO THE PEOPLE. This subject will be touched on later. Another law that deals with the GAU, when put together it must always be put together the same way or do not mix or intermingle the parts otherwise it will become a negative force working against you.

It appears we got side-tracked, but back to the subject. We were talking about a catastrophe which led into a spiritual turning point which was good for some and bad for others such as the Prophets of Gloom.

Not one person reading this book can deny they have come to or will come to the end of their spiritual walk with the present religious writing they had been going by, and the next step spiritually-would be to put into action, what has been taught to be a true believer of a God, Lord, or Savior. (If I have left out the name of your Supreme Being, please forgive. To list all of these names would take a book of 1,000 pages)
