If one was to recite the research and knowledge of various organizations that followed Migration trails of the Indian of the America's from known sites, it would stagger human imagination. Their evidence on the actual trails is quite good, but they are not the elite of the groups.

Then there is the Tunnal theory for Migrations. Their membership comes from every country known in the world and if it was ever consolidated as one major organization, it would have the largest membership; but even after this it would not be the elite of the groups. This would include governments who are using sophisticated explosives to close the openings, dumping radio-active waste in them, and changing the course of rivers to fill them up.

The elite of these groups, for the sake of a name, we will call: THE CIBOLA GROUP. The membership of this group are the families of the world who rule and have the resources.

On the surface of their activities, they cannot be shown as looking for Migration trails of the Indian. UNDERCURRENT? Yes! This Cibola Group have terminated and stolen Indian land and killed more Indian tribes in a quantity that is greater then all the nations and governments that have dealt with the Indian of the America's since the beginning of civilized history in this part of the world. They have a tie to every Indian reservation, past and present, made up of Indian women, who are not Clan Mothers or women of the Clan and are controlled by white women. They have been so well trained since 1830 that even the radical group A.I.M. women have never known of their existence or that they do exist. These Indian women are part of a group in which this group does not know of their existence. So they are hiding as a group within a group. From all my research they can only be identified individually by their actings. These actions that
