

To the Ancient Traditionalist, many who were driven from their homelands because they refused to sign away lands and mineral rights and treaty rights. To have spent many years among the whites as the only safe place to be; to YOU, the following is still alive!

The Buffalo-Crow treaty is still known, which by Ancient Equations is linked to the Eagle Bowl and the Whale Bowl.

The sell-out is at the end. No place to run to. The ones that have convinced the sell-out to help emprison other Indians, has only the sell-outs left to put behind bars.

From now on, there will be no activist, no one to tell of lands that have been stolen.

Only the cry, that everyone is to get ready.

The sell-outs will soon learn, that the agreements made cannot be kept because it would violate treaties and Federal Statutes.

They will learn that the termination of Indians and reservations is no the policy of the United States, but treaty stipulations in which the Signatures wanted all Indians who left or refused to follow the Old Ancient ways, to be separated and terminated.
