

characteristics, and I'll show you a white man trying to be Indian.

The Indian Medicine person is positive and uncompromising but is always concerned for the spiritual ignorance of people that might appear to ^{be} a person that is modest, meek, selfless, unassuming, and submissive, but it is a concern for living people who are spiritually dead.

The Indian who is held by spiritual laws that does not permit him or her to persuade one from one religion to another, gives one concept that does not violate this law, by trying to tell about TIME. Indian TIME.

So, TIME belongs to the Unborn. The generations yet to come.

Correct TIME! Spiritual Time and Seasons TIME.

The Young must be taught the correct TIMES, before the fifth birthday to insure proper spiritual growth. This becomes the duty of the whole tribe.

To the Ancient Indian of the America's, this is a child's reality.

For many of you, no matter what your age is, must begin at this place. A child's reality!

To assure your spiritual growth.

To be a child of TIME.
