

We know that these chants and songs were brought to the United States and compared with some of the Song and Dances that use to be done on Indian reservations. They were found to be the same and to this day, they are not permitted to be done or performed by Indians.

No wonder when I was a small child, on my reservation the state Police and National Guard burned and destroyed our tents, food, and objects and drums, then gave us a good beating for doing gentle Song and Dances in the year of 1936.

Research shows that many white persons received grants and degrees for doing the research comparasion of these Song and Dances.

They are all stored in Archives in a arcane jurisdiction, in Washington, D.C.

Even the American Bar Assoc. has laws on the chants that he calls; TABLES.
