With that he stands, turns and walks into the dark of this Park. Clair jumps up and too runs into the dark, shouting: "Wait for me!"

Pam: "Wynona! Don't! She is our medium. It is her place to follow and learn. He cannot teach till someone steps out. Of all the books read, it has happened as you are seeing it."

June 2nd. 9:02a.m. Tourist Information Center, Chaco Canyon National Monument Park, New Mexico.

Buddy gets out of the Sports Car and walks around the Station Wagon to talk to Penny who is driving. "I hope you know what you are doing!" replies Penny.

Buddy: "Because of who we are, we can't file a missing persons report. If anything has happened to them, were going to have to pick up the pieces and go from here. Now look! I have to return these wilderness passes. Lets get back to Santa Fe as fast as possible. The City will have to be notified."

With that Buddy runs into the Information Center and shortly comes out and the cars start their journey back.

4:56p.m. Buddy follows Penny through the winding streets of Santa Fe. That 200 miles was the most miserable ever driven, and still a million ideas flash through everyone's mind, trying to establish what could have happen. Wynona who is really broken up, is the first to jump out when they arrive at the house. As she enters the house, Buddy, Pam, and Penny slowly walk to the house trying to come up with a plan and as they are about to open the door, they hear Wynona laughing in pure hysteria. Rushing in expecting to see a mental case, she is rolling on the floor waving a note. Buddy grabs it and reads: SORRY WE MISSED YOU. GOT A RIDE WITH AN OLD COUPLE IN A CAMPER. BROUGHT US ALL THE WAY BACK TO SANTA FE. GONE TO UNIVERSAL CITY. FILMING COMPANY SUPPLIES ALL BACKGROUND EXTRA SCENES FOR FILMS. HAS THE BEST ROCKY MOUNTAINS FILMS
