

bust out crying here."

She leaves and all know how she feels but what can be said that would change this day of loniness. Wynona takes another drink and just looks.

Wynona: "I think I'm going to get pissy-ass drunk and fuck everything in sight!"

Penny: "Your cracking up. Tell me! is this what we learned from the Time Walker? Did he teach when he is gone, we go haywire?"

Buddy: "Look! did we have to fly down that hole and have it out WITH the risk of being killed? Did we have to stand against the U.S. Armed forces to get some conditions so we could walk free again? Is anyone looking for us? NO!"

Pam: "For God Sakes! Lets fly to Time Walker's home in Scotland and relax. Maybe he will show?"

Penny: "Lets do something!"

Suddenly there is a phone message for Wynona, "CALLING VALLI PETERSON! CALLING VALLI PETERSON!"

Wynona: "Here! Thats for me."

The man plugs the phone into the floor plug. Wynona takes notes and replys: "yes" Clair returns from the lady's room, and Wynona motions for her to be seated. Again she says "Yes"! "yes"! and then hangs up the call.

Wynona: "Get this ~~every~~body! Clair! remember that new Boeing 727 you gave the Time Walker?"

Clair: "Of course!"

Wynona: "Ten minutes ago, a requested flight approval was given for a pattern ~~To~~ Albuquerque, New Mexico ~~for~~ this same 727. Within the hour, it will be taking off. That will put this 727 in New Mexico late June 14th. One day of rest for the crew now makes it June 15th. So this 727 is ready to depart for places unknown on June 16th.
