

What is a PARA-LEGAL? He is that legal representation for a client that is not duty-bound to obey a court-order issued by a trial judge when the violation of perjury has been committed. The judge can do whatever is necessary to get you convicted (U.S. v. Russell, 433 US 411), I had been lucky ~~with the writ~~ to work with the writ for the new trial in U.S. v. Sincox (5th Cir. 1978), 77-2025, that whatever is necessary is the Defense Attorney. Of course U.S. Senator Long from Louisiana was a personal friend of Sincox's family who helped to get the conviction reversed. Sincox's case while at Terre Haute prison was the effort of several inmates including myself on trial and errors of two years of research, which included all the trial judge's tricks, the prosecutor, and the Defense attorneys from my own case, (Fed. E. Dist. Okla. 76-16-CR., 76-27-CR., 557 F.2d.721, 77-72-C, 77-101-CR.; Fed. S. Dist. Ind. TH-78-27-C.) Attorneys Ernest Anthis Jr., Andrew Wilcoxon, Vance Van Kolken and Berry Benefield of the state of Oklahoma; Kenneth Tilsen of Minnesota; Auther Jones of Illinois; Teagarden and "Biff" Crawford of Terre Haute, Ind. all know they can be disqualified from representation by a PARA-LEGAL because they were duty-bound to a Court-order to convict a client. So, a PARA-LEGAL is legal representation who must disqualify a licensed attorney who is duty-bound to convict his own client by court-order, which is in direct conflict and violates the 6th. Amendment of the United States Constitution for any individual who has the right to able legal assistance in a court of law.

You say that the country is full of crime and communities have formed their own protection groups? Remember this! of the 25 to 30% of Federal prisoner/innocent of their convictions, the real criminals to these crimes are free protected by immunity and permitted to continue their criminal activities as long as they inform on other individuals. How do you as a private citizen hope to get a conviction if he is protected by immunity?
