

come from marriages that are mixed that disqualifies the children from being members of the tribe, would qualify them to U.S. citizenship, which excludes any tribal members, then teaching the laws for the protection from the treaties is defeated.

They become tribal members that cannot protect their resources or their lands and must be protected by a concerning nation through guardianship.

That is a legal fact I've been teaching for over 20 years in which only maybe 20 Indians may understand but are over ruled by the 99.99999% who do not.

If American Indian stories, legends, and prophecys- state this would come about in the end-time, than we have watched the exclusion of tribal genetic inheritance for the protection from the end-time, that not one tribal member in North or South America can state they knew nothing of this because each has taken a personal review of their life in secret every day of their life, to see if they had gone beyond the veil that would disqualify them.

This book is to show, that the knowledge must be maintained to qualify for a beginning; to the protection.

What will disqualify individuals is knowledges that conflict with these ancient tribal teachings and such a disqualification will be done on a personal bases, without anyone's influence.

Each subject you read is known by tribal members, even if they will deny it openly, because to admit this knowledge exists, disqualifies them.

come from marriages that are mixed that disqualifies the children from being members of the tribe, would qualify them to U.S. citizenship, which tribal members, then teaching the laws for the protection from the treaties is defeated.

They become tribal members that cannot protect their resources or their lands and must be protected by a concerning nation through guardianship.

That is a legal fact I've been teaching for over 20 years only maybe 20 Indians may understand but are over ruled by the who do not _

If American Indian stories, legends, and prophecies state come about in the end-time, than we have watched the exclusion genetic inheritance for the protection from the end-time, that in which

99 . 99999%

this would

of tribal not one

tribal member in North or South America can state they knew nothing of this because each has taken a personal review of their life in secret every day of their life, to see if they had gone beyond the veil that would disqualify them.

This book is to show, that the knowledge must be maintained to qualify for a beginning to the protection.

What will disqualify individuals is knowledges that conflict with these ancient tribal teachings and such a disqualification will be done on a personal bases, without anyone's influence.

Each subject you read is known by tribal members, even if deny it openly, because to admit this knowledge exists, disqualifies them they will