

(3)

mind but your total existence, including the human body one was born with.

To the Common Intellectual Scholar, this idea is absurd and ridiculous.

This is only because such people have no spiritual knowledge or power and their existence is used to find ways to further oppress all tribal peoples of the world.

But there is a question for such people and their logic systems.

Even with world educational systems, teaching the young that MU and ATLANTIS, are only Mythology concepts and legends; why would a world cult that controls the behavior of the people on Earth, need to do a perpetual prayer, that is to prevent the awakening of a spiritual ritual of a Mythology Empire?

Why is it, that not one civilized religion at the Grass-root level knows about this perpetual prayer that protects them and what this prayer must accomplish?

That no religious or occult group teaches anything about this prayer?
Who are the descendants of MU and ATLANTIS and do they exist today?

mind but your total existence, including the human body one was born with.

To the Common Intellectual Scholar, this idea is absurd and ridiculous

This is _only because such people have no spiritual knowledge or power and their existence is used to find ways to further oppress all tribal peoples of the world.

But there is a question for such people and their logic systems.

Even with world educational systems, teaching the young that MU and ATLAN'IIS, are only Mythology concepts and legends; why would a world cult that controls the behavior of the people on Earth, need to do a perpetual prayer, that is to prevent the awakening of a spiritual ritual of a Mythology Empire?

Why is it, that not one civilized religion at the Grass-root level knows about this perpetual prayer that protects them and what this prayer must accomplish?

That no religious or occult group teaches anything about this prayer?

Who are the descendants of MU and ATLAN'TIS and do they exist today?