

They helped ack-to'me clean and dress the huge animal. There were buffalo horns never before seen by man and with the upper hide surely would qualify ack-to'me the right to take the teachings of a medicine man.

The lower half of the hide, would make a buffalo robe in size that any maiden would be honored to place on ack-to'me shoulders and become his bride.

Back at the village a feast was held in the evening honor and he was asked to speak ack-to'me bowed his head, and spoke of my shame and disgrace, my family and I were

I have spent the great animal skin as I was feared and I desired.

I inherited the skin and the two other skins everyone to look down on just warrior. But truly, the skin is for my wife and my children and my family and I have saved my life and my children to have my wife and my children and my life.

to a great and better world to stay and just honor the spirit the Buffalo taught me. It is a great honor to know like I am and not what I am greater to belong than to be part of ~~my~~ <sup>my</sup> life.

with that out time worked away from the front, back to his home, pulled back the tent flap stepped in and seated himself.

I know that he would be in that tent. A man in his tent.
