

But the American Indian isn't out of the woods yet. Should the scientific conclusions of THE VERO AND MELBOURNE MAN be brought into the teachings of Institutions of Higher Learning, the Indian of today will be accused of fooling around with a Monkey of the past and getting it pregnant from which came the present human races of the world.

End of Duality example.

One confrontation in establishing a truth, the jars of worms that was opened, the Government spent 22 million dollars to get me convicted and sent me to prison for a 20/^{YEAR}~~SENTENCE~~. Had I not sat down and studied court procedures and domestic laws where I writ myself out of prison in 31 months on January 1979, I would still/^{BE}~~POTTING~~ away today. I know what Geronimo felt like ^{who} ~~would~~ was a political prisoner for 20 years and died like that. I know the glory of the confrontations such as WOUNDED KNEE 1873, having the attention of the world and the loneliness of being isolated where no one cares of what or who you are. A prison sentence did not lower me in a social category as an American Indian because getting out of the gutter was a new experience. I have experience everything that a human being can impose on another human being as torture and came out the winner. I've paid my dues to proclaim because of an Indian confrontation with the United States on March 11, 1972 at 4:10P M. Pacific standard time by the writing ^{of} a document called AN INDIAN MANIFESTO, occupied territories dealing with Indian treaty rights which by proxy extended to every country in north and south america, that was done without any supporting evidences in the archives of the United States, outside of an expensive and extensive study done by the Department of the Interior, so the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo could be signed. This study gave over 100 articles of treaties that cannot be found in any nation archives in north and south america as existing as treaties, yet nations including the U.S. follow these

But the American Indian isn't out of the woods yet. Should the scientific conclusions of THE VERO AND MELBOURNE MAN be brought into the teachings of institutions of Higher Learning, the Indian of today will be accused of fooling around with a Monkey of the past and getting it pregnant from which came the present human races of the world.

End of Duality example.

One confrontation in establishing a truth, the jars of worms that was opened, the Government spent 22 million dollars to get me convicted and sent me to prison for a 20/gÉ1@1 {ence. Had I not sat down and studied court procedures and domestic laws where I Writ myself out of prison in 31 months on January 1979, I would still/rjätting away today. I know what Geronimo felt like was a political prllisoner for 20 years and died like that. I know the glory of the confrontations such as WOUNDED KNEE 1973, having the attention of the world and the loneliness of being isoatec where no one cares of what or who you are. A prison sentence did not lower me in a social Catagory as an American Indian because getting out of the gutter was a new experience. I have experience everything that a human being can impose on another human being as torture and came out the winner. I,ve paid my dues to proclaim because of an Indian confrontation with the United States on March 11,1972 at 4:1011 M. Pacific standard time by the writtingiia document called AN INDIAN MANIFESTO, occupied territories dealing with Indian treaty rights which by proxy extented to every counrty in north and south america, that was done without any supporting evidences in the archives of the United States, outside of an expensive and extentive study done by the Department of the Interior, so the Treaty of Guadlupe . Hidalgo could be signed. This study gave over 100 articles of treaties that cannot be found in- any nation archives in north and sould america as existing as treaties, yet nations including the these