

As long as I can remember, I've heard Indians or tribal leaders state, " WE ARE A SOVEREIGN PEOPLE!"

How?

Because we have Treaties!

But no Indian or tribal leader has been able to answer my Question, " HOW ARE WE SOVEREIGN?"

Any Dictionary gives SOVEREIGN (Latin-Super meaning ABOVE) One who possesses sovereign authority; a Monarch.
A hereditary constitutional sovereign, as a KING, QUEEN, etc. controlled by a written document for Men only.

But there is nothing in reference to territory. Tribes have no MONARCH because all power is vested in the Women, at least five.

However, SOVEREIGNTY, the ultimate, supreme power in a state, also belongs to the Women for a tribal unit anyplace on Earth.

For any tribe to claim sovereignty, must have at least five Clans and each clan has a Clan Mother who elects Chiefs to run the nation.

SOVEREIGNTY is not AUTONOMY.

AUTONOMY (Greek autosnomos meaning Self Law, Rule) A self-governing state, community or group subject to a supreme sovereign.

Tribal Clan Mothers are completely left out.
