

It is the GIANTS which are still developing, that will blow the theories of the Super Elite, all too HELL!

The traces of the would-be GIANTS, can be seen in some of the offspring throughout the world. A certain type of people, either Black, Brown, Red, Yellow, and even White or all, will mix genetically with an Ancient Indian or any other Ancient throughout the world. This mixing genetically, will be more than jumping in bed and having children. They will go through the ritual of how to wake genetic memory. However, many of these GIANTS will be unable to awake their genetics that will help them deal with a future global catastrophe by using past genetic memories. The condition of the earth that is causing them to become GIANTS, which is already taking place, this growth will genetically put a mark on them.

Of all Ancient ethnic groups throughout the world, who all had a terrible fear of receiving this mark, the Chinese had the worst one.

It is recorded they had kept the women of the Clan and Clan Mothers in their proper place and authority, but the women developed the mark and could not be altered. It was then they began to wrap the feet of the women. From what has been put together, the feet were not out of proportion but over proportion and were huge according to body size.

This condition of the Earth will increase the making of these GIANTS as the O Zone Layer becomes less and less.

The larger animals of today will become smaller as this condition gets worse and the smaller animals, many that cannot be seen today, will become the D I N O S A U R S of tomorrow and whose remains are always found after a Global Catastrophe or an Ice Age.

Believe me! they were not created by the burning or smoking of ancient ceremonial tobacco's,
