

caught in a cross-fire. The announcer further gives details, saying it is almost the same situation Indians pulled at Wounded Knee, which forced the United States to ask for a Cease-fire.

The door opens and Buddy, Pam, and Penny rush in.

The Announcer continues: The press are protesting because they have not been permitted to enter the area of the conflict. The Announcer interrupts, to bring everyone up to date.

The next scene is at Cheyenne Airport, where Government Officials, Senators, Congressional personal, Bureau of Indian Affairs Officials are disembarking and a high Air Force General steps up to Microphones to speak; PLEASE! WE ASK THE PRESS TO BEAR WITH US. WE HAVE A CEASE-FIRE. THIS MUCH WE KNOW. THESE INDIANS HAVE UNCOVERED THAT PERSONS UNKNOWN HAVE DISTURBED SOME VERY SACRED GROUNDS AND SO FAR, HAVE NOT TOLERATED ANY ATTEMPTS FOR AN ORGANIZED INVESTIGATION. THIS IS WHY WE HAVE ASKED THE PRESS NOT TO GO NEAR THE AREA. PRELIMINARY FINDINGS UNDER THE WHITE FLAG.. YES! WE WERE AT ONE TIME UNDER THE WHITE FLAG. THEY ARE ABSOLUTELY CORRECT AS TO THEIR COMPLAINT. THE CEASE-FIRE IS FRAGILE AND A LOT OF LIVES ARE AT STAKE. SO WE ASK! PLEASE! PLEASE! I BEG, DO NOT DISTURB THE CEASE-FIRE. IF THERE ARE ANY FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS, YOU WILL BE BROUGHT UP TO DATE. THANK YOU....."

The announcer who is at Cheyenne, now tells what station or network is bring this special newbreak who turns it back to the local station. The announcer now tells an affiliate station is standing by in Washington D.C. to meet with other newscasters who have been on other Indian confrontations to give their opinion on this secret confrontation.

Announcer: "John, what can you add to this Indian confrontation?"

Newscaster John: "There is really something wrong here."

Announcer: "What makes you say that?"

Newscaster John: "We have cameras at a point 18 miles from the area in question. We have witnessed army copters chased out by the Indians and they are again using copters. These Indian copter pilots who in the past usually go back if everyone leaves the immediate area. This is not the case here. Army copter pilots are forced to land before these Indian pilots show any mercy. There are mad. We have footage showing army pilots trying to get medical help for their wounded but all concentration is set on keeping any news from getting out. What ever it is its big. I mean big. The wounded don't count." The Television now shows the war as the newscaster says it is happening' Army personal taking the pilots away and trucks of men, building corrugated walls around the downed copters.'

is almost the same situation Indians pulled at Wounded Knee, which forced the United States to ask for e

The door opens and Buddy, Pam, and Peony rush in.

The Announcer continues: The protesters are protesting because they have not been permitted to enter the area of the

The Announcer: The protesters are protesting because they have not been permitted to enter the area of the

The announcer who is at Cleveland, New York station or network is bringing this special who turns it back to the local station. The announcer now tells station is standing by in Washington D.G. to meet with other newscasters who have been on other Indian Civil Frontations to give their opinion on this secret confrontation.

Announcer: "John, what can you add to this Indian confrontation?"

Announcer: "What makes you say that?"