

June 13th. 2:10p.m. 59th. and 7th.Avenue, New York City, 48 days after leaving the Underground City.

Talking about being overpowered, there are five private planes parked in and at Kennedy. Buddy's, Wynona's, Clair's, Penny's, and Pam's. They are ⁱⁿ a rented Limousine and Clair is trying to get the driver to come down a street that is one-way. Anyone knows in New York city, sometimes you can drive clear-across town, before you can find a way back that will put you on a certain one-way street. The driver is trying to make it clear, this is one of those times.

Pam: "Clair! what on earth are you doing?"

Clair: "See that Bar? Time Walker told me about it and said the place is really friendly. He said some of his friends used to come here and really tie one on. He said if he ever made it back here, there's where he wants to come. He also told me about his apartment in the 200 block on west 86th street.

Buddy: "Driver!! Were going into that Bar. Park down the street and come back in one hour. Here's a "C" which will take care of everything." The Driver pulls and everyone piles out and start^s up the street. Clair is the first to enter.

Clair:" This Bar has two parts. Up that one step and your in the back part. Its not really because it runs along the sidewall. That a nice view out the windows, just like he said."

The seat and a waitress comes for them to order which they do.

Clair: "Miss! We have an Indian friend who recommended this place and said he really like it."

Waitress: "We really liked him. He knew how to drink. I saw him on T.V. in that Indian Thing. Is he coming this way? He could really put a party together."

Buddy: "We're hoping he will come and there is a good chance."
