

How did he know there was 140 of us? Better yet, how did he know 4 were missing?"

Wynona: "You Stan! Everybody! all--of you! Came face to face with THE TIME WALKER FROM WAH'OH-TA!

One of the women Wynona remembered as supporting her came forward and kissed her and cried. She asked Wynona: "Did you get to meet him?"

Wynona: "Yes we did and all of us fell in love with this strange man, that we will never meet another like him. This we know and can't even tell you where he is because we don't know!"

Penny: "We have as much to thank him for as you."

Stan: "Wynona! you and the others better check in with your families. They got everyone at the city. We had to sign a bunch of national security oaths, never to release what happened to us. We were set free from the Indian agreement, which the Officials weren't Too happy about. Our coming here is a condition that we were set free for the Indians."

Clair: "Don't even try to guess how the Indians know you are free, we've been among them and haven't figured out how they work."

Stan: "Check in, some of the names on the supporters on the outside of the city are out, and are already running to hide."

Penny: "Looks like we may have our work cut out."

The gathering is breaking up. Only Penny, Clair, Pam, Buddy, and Wynona remain all by themselves at the end. They reorder another drink and just sit there wondering. It is Clair who starts to let everyone know she beginning to try and make somekind of move, Clair: "I'm going to my Towers, clean up, dress up or whatever one does when one has won a victory. Better yet, I want to go and cry by myself. I still have to go to Santa Fe and mail those films back. I'm going to the little girl's room and straighten out before I

L were missing?"

Wynona: "You Stanî youî Came face to face with

THE FROM '

One of the women Wynona reniembered as supporting her- came forward and kissed her' and cried. She asked W"ynona:"Dici you get to meet Wynona: "Yes we did and all of 'us fell in loire with this strangge man, that we will never* meet another- like him. This we know and csm't even tell you where he is because we donft know?"

Penny: "We have as much to thank him for as you."

Stan: "Wynon.ai you and the others better- check in with your families.

They got everyone at the city. We had to sign a bunch oi' national security oaths, never' to release what happened to us. We were set free from the agreement, which the Officials T5@ happy about. Ou@ Coming here is a condition that we were set free for the Indians." e

Clair: "Damit ever; try to guess how the indiane know you are free, weve been among them and he.ve_r1't figured out how they work."

Stan: "Check ín, some of the names on the suppoïtexne on the outside of the city are out, and are already rilnning, te hide@

Penny:"Looks like we may have our work out out."

The g:ø'l'ther'ing; is breaking up, Only Permy, Clair, Pam, Buddy, and if-Jynone.
remain all by themselves at the end., They another' drink and just sit; there wolidering. it is Clair" who starts to let everyone know ehe beginning to try and make comekind of move,

Clair: "Vm going to my Towers, clean up, dress up or* wílatevel" one does when one has won a victorgr.. yet, I want to go and cry by myself. Í still have to go to Santa Fe and mail those films back, Vm going to the litiàle girlís room and St1 :aightel'i out befotmf: 'i