

The reader need not worry on the statements made by the author, because as it stands today, these attorneys and the control over the court of competent jurisdiction, their complaint would be the long awaited legal vehicle needed to open the courts on this suppressed evidence. Let us look at a bare-ass fact. Some of these attorneys mentioned have been involved with the Indian issue, and in a later chapter the exact statutes and codes along with the procedures will be shown on how they got innocent Indians convicted. How these cases can be reopened and as a PARA-LEGAL having professional responsibility to get all irrelevant, confidential and privileged records, evidence, and witnesses (Kerr v. U.S. Dist. Ct., ___ U.S. ___, 44 U.S.L.W.4838; U.S. v. Garrett, 6th.Cir. No. 76-1108.), including the papers submitted by the Defense attorney on the subject: THE CRIMINAL MIND OF HIS CLIENT, in which he received additional grant money, which is above the money received to get his client convicted.

Let me quote from a United States Justice from a Supreme Court decision that makes the training of PARA-LEGALS properly, : vital to the American way:

"We agree with Mr. Justice Black, dissenting in Berra v. United States, 351 US 131, 76 S.Ct.685(1956), that we should not 'place control over the liberty of citizens in the ir retrievable discretion of one individual--a result which seems...to be wholly incompatible with our system of justice...'for the very idea that one man may be compelled to hold his life, or the means of living, or any material right essential to the enjoyment of life, at the mere will of another seems to be intolerable in any country where freedom prevails, as being the essence of slavery itself." (quoting from Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 US at 370.

A licensed attorney backed by laws that gives him the right to practice law to represent a client through professional responsibility to protect a constitutional right, betray this right in secret, then hope that laws prevent others from practicing his profession without a license, so that his betrayal will not be uncovered.
