

I N T R O D U C T I O N

The making of a Political Prisoner is a statement that few today could find a meaning or even a definition to why it is used. Revolutionist hijack aircraft endangering the lives of hundreds of people demanding the release of named political prisoners to a recognized sovereignty.

Individuals go on a hunger strike and refuse to take any nourishment until they are recognized as political prisoners more often than none while they are serving a prison sentence. I observed newscasters relating the dying of a man who had refused nourishment for his body demanding, to be recognized as a political prisoner. Yet, there has never been any type of definition given that would show either the individual on a hunger strike or, revolutionist hijacking an aircraft having a legitimate reason. A POLITICAL PRISONER is found in International Law and can be traced back as far as man has been able to interpret languages and picture graphs. Whether you or I want to face the fact when we are placed in a position of being considered a commoner within a sovereignty or state (state is spelled with a small s) at any moment, any day or any year under certain given circumstances and location you could become a political prisoner to serve a sentence of not less than fifteen years in which you know you are innocent but because of a professional exact science that you chose not to pursue as your livelihood you will serve every day of the imposed sentence under maximum security.

Let me define in the most common language using the most commonest words that will define a Political Prisoner.

The making of a Political Prisoner is a statement that few today could find a meaning or even a definition to why it is.1.,15ed, Revolutionist hijack aircraft endangering the lives of hundreds of people demanding the release of named political prisoners to a recognized sovereignty.

Individuals go on a hunger strike and refuse to take any nourishment until they are recognized as political prisoners more often than none while they are serving a prison sentence, I observed newscasters relating the of a man who had refused nourishment for his body demanding, to be recognized as a political prisoner. Yet, there has never been any type of definition given that would show either the individual on a hunger strike or, revolutionist hijacking an aircraft having a legitimate reason. A POLITICAL is found in International Law and can be traced back as far as man has been able to interpret languages and picture graphs. Whether you or I want to face the fact when we are placed in a position of being considered a commoner within a sovereignty or 'state(state is spelled with a small _s) at any moment, any day or any year- under certain given circumstances and location you could 'become a political prisoner to serve a sentence of not less than fifteen years in which you know you are innocent, but because of a professional exact science that you chose not to pursue as your livelihood you will serve every day of the imposed sentence under maximum security!

- Let me define in the most common language using the _most commonest »words that will define a Political Prisoner.